Monty Gets Stripe

London.- Fifty-one years ago Field Marshall Viscount Montgomery was promoted to lance corporal at the Royal Military Academy at Sandhurst. He lost the stripe for setting fire to a fellow cadet's shirttails.

Recently, on a return visit to Sandhurst, Montgomery got his chevron back — in a glass-topped wooden case. On a silver plaque was the inscription : "Gentleman Cadet B. L. Montgomery, demoted from L. Cpl. in bloody B. Company, Sandhurst, October, 1907. Field Marshal the Viscount Montgomery of Alemein, K. G., G. C. B., D. S. O., reinstated L. Cpl. Alamein Company Sandhurst October 23, 1958."

Education Fund

After the political campaign is over, people usually sit back and relax.

But not the workers for the Virginia Education Fund.

"Since the election, we have doubled our efforts to raise more money," according to Lewis S. Pendleton, Jr., president. "Senator Byrd's overwhelming victory last week spurred us on in our campaign for funds."

Pendleton said support for the Senator is synonymus with support for the principles of the Virginia Education Fund.

He explained that the fund is a state-wide emergency organization set up a month ago to channel money from all over the state to the three areas—Front Royal, Charlottesville and Norfolk, where public schools have been closed by court orders.
